

Wendy A. Harris, M.D.

ONE HUNTER AVENUE SUITE B, ARMONK, N.Y. 10504

TEL 915-219-5524 armonkintegratedpsychiatry@yahoo.com

EDUCATION

M.D. Cornell University Medical College, New York, N.Y. 1992

B.S. McGill University, Montreal, PQ, 1987

POST GRADUATE TRAINING

YALE UNIVERSITY DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHIATRY, New Haven, CT, 1992-1996

Resident in Psychiatry, Yale New Haven Hospital, New Haven, CT. 1993-1996

Intern in Internal Medicine, Greenwich Hospital, Greenwich, CT. 1992-1993

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

Instructor of Psychiatry, Weill Medical College of Cornell University

White Plains, N.Y. July 1999-May 2001

Assistant Professor of Psychiatry, Weill Medical College of Cornell University

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Private Practice

Armonk Integrated Psychiatry, P.C. Founder and Director Armonk, New York, October 2011-Present

Wilkins Center, Greenwich, Ct Assistant Medical Director May 2001-October 2011

Cornell University Faculty Practice, White Plains, N.Y. July 1997-May 2001

General psychiatry with specialization in eating disorders anxiety and depression evaluation, trained in CBT,

DBT, pharmacotherapy and psychotherapy, adults and adolescents.

Consultant, Beacon Program for Eating Disorders, NY, NY

Director Eating Disorder Program

Mid Fairfield Child Guidance Clinic, Norwalk, CT. May 2001-October 2011

Program development, including initiation and oversight of outpatient treatment program for eating disorders.

Evaluation and treatment of admissions to eating disorder program.

Staff Psychiatrist

Mid Fairfield Child Guidance Clinic, Norwalk, CT May 2001-October 2011

Evaluation and treatment of adolescents with varied psychiatric disorders.

Unit Chief, Inpatient Eating Disorders Unit

New York Presbyterian Hospital, Westchester Division, White Plains, N.Y. July 1996-May 2001

Responsibilities included:

- Clinical Oversight of 20 bed inpatient unit including program development, including initiation and oversight of subacute treatment program for eating disorders.
- Screening and coordination of potential admissions to eating disorder unit.

- Lecturing on the inpatient treatment of eating disorders, for child and adolescent fellows, second year psychiatry residents, third year medical students.
- Supervising and coordinating eating disorder electives, for third and fourth year medical students, second, third and fourth year residents and visiting psychiatrists.
- Supervising multidisciplinary treatment team on inpatient unit including psychology interns.

HONORS AND AWARDS

The Treatment of Anorexia Nervosa, Visiting Lecturer, Yale University Department of University Health, February 1998

James Comer NIMH Minority Fellowship Award for research in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, 1991

Geriatric Home Aid Fellowship, 1989

Cum Laude graduate in physiology, 1987

COMMITTEES

Yale Residency Selection Committee, 1997-1998

New York Presbyterian Hospital Special Review Committee, 1997-2001

CERTIFICATION

American Boards of Psychiatry and Neurology, May 1997, Renewal of Certification 2007

LICENSURE

Licensed in New York State and Connecticut

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

National Eating Disorders Association 1995-present

American Psychiatric Association 1995-present

Academy of Eating Disorders 1998-present

American Medical Association 1995-present

PUBLICATIONS

Wiseman, CV, Sunday, SR, Klapper, FK, Harris, WA and KA Halmi (2001). Changing patterns of hospitalization in eating disorder patients. International Journal of Eating Disorders, 30, 69-74.

Wiseman, CV, Kelly, EM, Harris, WA and KA Halmi (2001). Treatment of anorexia and bulimia in children and adolescents. In R. Carusso (ed.) Psychiatric Treatment of Children and Adolescents.

Harris, WA, Wiseman, CV, Wagner, S, and Halmi, KA (2001). The difficult to treat eating disorder patient. In:

Pies, R and Dewan, M (Eds.) The Difficult to Treat Psychiatric Patient.

Wiseman, CV, Harris, WA, and Halmi, KA (1998) Eating disorders. Medical Clinics of North America, 82,

145-159